

ADVANCED MULTIMEDIA DEVELOPMENT (CIC2P13) Tutorial - Week 3

Activity

Group Discussion & Presentation – “Introduction to Program Design” Notes (P1 to P12)

To divide students into groups of 4 to 6 for future group discussions.

To find out the summary for the following main points through group discussion. All students from each group to share their findings

1. What is a Program?

Give an example of a program.

What are the two different type of information we need to give to the computer?

2. Describe the Program Development Cycle.

3. Why is it important to plan a program before actually doing it?

4. What is informal Design? What is formal Design?

5. Give a program design example, identify the major tasks and sub-tasks of the design solution.
(You can use examples from the notes given.)